

SHORT GAIN — A strong running game carried Dansville High to a 16-14 victory at Livonia Saturday. Brad West broke through a hole for yardage on this play and finished the game with 94 yards while scoring both touchdowns.

Defense Preserves Conference Victory

DCHS Runs Over Livonia

There will be no rest for the Dansville High football team.

After a bruising 16-14 victory at Livonia Saturday, Coach Mike McMullin's Mustangs return home Friday night to take on Attica in a non-league game. The visitors, coached by DCHS grad Denny Leyden, will bring a strong squad to Ralph Clements Field. Kickoff is 7:30 p.m.

Dansville scored in the second and fourth quarters and was twice successful on two-point conversions for the margin of victory in the Livingston Conference Division One game. Livonia also scored a pair and each time went for the point-after kick. The remainder of the game was a defensive war and the Mustangs won the final battle, turning back a Livonia drive as time ran out.

Early in the second quarter, Brad West broke loose for a 44-yard touchdown scamper and quarterback Dave Hamsher went over on a keeper for two points. A Brad Masterson pass to Matt Young gave Livonia a touchdown in the same period. Bob Stewart booted the point to cut the margin to 8-7 at halftime.

Livonia went ahead in the third period when Masterson connected with Young on a 45-yard aerial. Stewart kicked the point for a 14-8 lead. The Mustangs came back in the fourth quarter as Brad West again raced to the end zone, this play converging 25 yards. Hamsher passed to Chad West for the two points and the Mustang lead.

Dansville dominated on the ground with 187 rushing yards to 50 for the hosts. Hamsher completed six of 15 passes for 68 yards and a total offense of 254 yards. Livonia completed 10 of 18 aerials for a total of 114 yards.

Brad West had 94 yards overall and Chad West gained 94. Jim King added nine in three carries. Bob Mahus hauled in three catches for 50 yards, Jim Fox had one for 13 and Chad West one for 15. Dansville piled up 13 first downs to 10 for Livonia.

On the defensive side, Ken Heiman was at the top with nine solo tackles and six assists. Also credited with outstanding defense were Corey Davis with four and one, Mike Green with four and four, King with four and two and a sack, Chad West with four and five and two sacks, Brad West with three and seven, and Mahus with four solos. However, it was Jerry Mitchell who came up with the key sack to thwart Livonia's late-game touchdown drive. Also credited with sacks were Roy Alford and Davis.

Dansville's junior varsity lost a 24-6 game to Livonia here Thursday night.
